

PROPOSITION 50 – INTEGRATED REGIONAL WATER MANAGEMENT GRANT PROGRAM

SCOPING WORKSHOPS IN MARCH 2004

The Integrated Regional Water Management (IRWM) Program is a competitive grant program, jointly administered by the Department of Water Resources (DWR) and the State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB) for projects to protect communities from drought, protect and improve water quality, and reduce dependence on imported water.

The workshops will provide interested persons with an opportunity to provide DWR and the SWRCB with input on the IRWM Program scoping, procedures, and the content of the grant solicitation and evaluation guidelines.
